A Beautiful Day of Golf, Food and Fun!

May 16 - Golfers couldn't have possibly asked for better weather for our 21st Annual Tournament! With the sun shining bright, and the temperature peaking at a warm 79 degrees, our guests enjoyed playing Deerwood Country Club's scenic Carolina-style golf course.

Once the golfers wrapped up their day on the links, they, along with Kingsway staff, parents and friends enjoyed a buffet dinner, a colorful silent auction and a rousing Live Auction and raffle. Long-time friend of Kingsway and former Mayor of Haddonfield, Jack Tarditi of Conner, Strong & Buckelew, was an energetic and persuasive auctioneer, and Susan Hodges moved our program along perfectly as the evening's emcee. Jason Avant, former Philadelphia Eagle and owner of Launch Trampoline Park in Deptford, chatted with guests and posed for photos. The highlight of the night was the announcement about the launch of Kingsway Services, an extension of Kingsway Learning Center that will provide an even broader spectrum of offerings to support our wider mission - for both students and adults - within our growing communities.
